Where to set up camp

Looking for information on campgrounds in the Southwest? Authors Fred and Suzanne Dow, winter residents of Bisbee, have published U.S. National Forest Campground Guide — Southwestern Region (1st Books Library, $15.34).

The book features campground descriptions and amenities, plus anecdotes from the authors, who visited the campsites. This is the third in a regional series of national forest campground guides the couple is working on.

The book is available in softcover from major bookstores, including Amazon.com and 1st Books, and also for $4.95 in electronic format. For information, visit the authors' site at www.gorp.com/dow or www.1stbooks.com and find the book by searching by the authors' last name.
